Dear Mr. Bleau:

Your responses to Bridgwell's Rule 33 Interrogatories and Rule 34 Requests for Documents are overdue. To avoid having to resort to court intervention under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37, we would like to schedule a conference to discuss the issue.

Please let me know when you would be available for a telephone conversation.

Sincerely,

Civil Action No. 04-10469REK

Dear Mr. Bleau:

Thank you for your telephone message yesterday, in which you stated that you did not call me last Thursday for our discovery conference because your cell phone had been stolen; that you had intended to rely on information from Bridgewell's document production in preparing your answers to interrogatories; and that your understanding was that the Court's 60-day extension of the deadline for a trial date also extended the time for responding to discovery. This is to confirm that you are working on your responses to Bridgewell's interrogatories and that you will serve them at the beginning of next week. If we do not receive them by Wednesday, June 28th, we will proceed with our motion to compel, as previously discussed.

Sincerely,

Christina Schenk-Hargrove

Dear Mr. Bleau:

Enclosed please find the documents Bridgewell previously agreed to produce in its response to your requests for the production of documents. We received the notice from Judge Young on July 19 that all further activity in this matter, including discovery, is stayed pending your appeal. However, we are producing these documents to you now as a courtesy.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
